Dr. Murrmann served as a co-chair for the Humane Society 75th Anniversary campaign "Dog Daze of Memphis" that promotes the Humane Society, Memphis, and art. In the past she has chaired many events and galas for charity including The American Heart Walk, The Heart Walk, and was the founder of "The Zodiac Ball" for the American Cancer Society which will now go into its 8th year.

She completed her undergraduate studies and graduated with honors at Bradley University in Peoria, Illinois, she studied at the Chicago Medical School and University of the Health Sciences graduating with multiple honors, served two years of her residency at the University of Illinois, and and two years of residency at the University of Tennessee in Obstetrics and Gynecology. Her society memberships include the Memphis Shelby County Medical Society, Tennessee Medical Association, and North American Menopause Society, the American Association of Gynecological Laparoscopic, the Society of Laparoendoscopic Surgeons, the Society of Cosmeticogynecology, and the American Association of Cosmetic Surgeons. Dr. Murrmann is an expert in the area of Minimally Invasive Surgery and Surgical Site Infections and has been involved with many clinical studies and lectures in those areas. She currently serves on the faculty of University of Tennessee for the Minimally Invasive Surgery Fellowship and as Secretary of the Memphis Robotic Surgery Society. Dr. Murrmann also consults for Ethicon Endosurgery and Ethicon Endosuture where she lectures locally and in the across the country in minimally invasive surgery, wound closure, and surgical site infection. Dr. Murrmann was recently appointed to the advisory board of the national organization the "American Institute of Minimally Invasive Surgery". Starting in October she will host a segment on FOX 13 after 9 show for women and health.

Dr. Murrmann also believes that women who "take better care of themselves on the outside ultimately take better care of themselves on the inside" so her expertise includes all aspects of women's health, including the minimally invasive cosmetic procedures, healthy lifestyle choices, and alternative health recommendations.

Although a transplant to Memphis from Chicago, Illinois, Memphis is her new home where she has been involved in many local organizations that promote health, Memphis, the arts, and tourism. She is currently a member of the National Association of the Recording Artists and is a supporter of Musicares, and organization that provides medical care to musicians without healthcare insurance. Dr. Murrmann is also on the executive committee of the Memphis and Shelby County Film and Television Commission, the board of the Indie Memphis Film Festival, and the Beale Street Blue Note committee that awards "Brass Notes" on Beale Street to deserving local musical artists.

Medicine is art, music and film are art, art is a passion.

Ken Nelson

After growing up in Virginia and Atlanta, 30 years ago I moved to Memphis to complete my art degree at The Memphis Art Academy, now Memphis College of Art. 10 months later, in August of 1982 I went to work for The Peabody Hotel as a waiter in order to assist me with school expenses and never left (The Peabody or Memphis).

I graduated with a BFA in Art History and Painting in 1986 from MCA, but along those four years I began to move into various positions at The Peabody and to consider myself a true Memphian. I moved from the position of Waiter, to Supervisor, then to Assistant Manager of Dux Restaurant, and then Manager of the restaurant.

In 1988 I moved from Restaurant Manager to our Catering Department where I would be able to use my art background creating events at "The South's Grand Hotel". In 1998 I was promoted to Assistant Director and retain that position today.

My community involvement has included volunteer work for American Heart Assn, Co-President of The Heart Gala Board, Dinner Chair and Decor Chair of The Heart Gala, volunteer work with The American Cancer Society, Decor Chair of The American Cancer Black Tie Ball, a graduate of The Leadership Academy, volunteer with The Alzheimer's Association as well as an annual participant in their Memory Walk. Also, I have been a volunteer with Friends for Life/Feast for Friends as well as a sponsor of their Monday Dinner program.

Over the past years with The Film and Television Commission I have hosted receptions for a holiday event, a wrap party for 21 grams, the German TV Commission, as well as worked closely with the cast and crew of the TV series "Police Women of Memphis". Additionally I have served as a liaison for the commission in meeting and greeting interested parties, actors, directors, writers, etc. considering our City and County for film projects.

In my "free" time I enjoy spending time with friends and family, traveling, gardening, painting, cooking, sports (go Tigers) and of course movies and television.

It has been an honor to have served on The Commission Board, and request that I continue to be a member of The Board in The City and County that I love and have come to call home.

Thank you for your consideration.

Best regards,

Ken Nelson

Ruby Wilson

She is the undisputed Queen of Beale Street, a Memphis legend who has taken the Delta blues and her powerful, emotional, unforgettable voice worldwide. When she's in Memphis, she often holds at B.B. King's, the epicenter of nightclub entertainment in the Mid-South. When she's out of town, she might be singing at the White House, or at a renowned jazz club in Switzerland, or on a luxury cruise in Asia.

She's Ruby Wilson, one of the most dynamic and soulful entertainers you will ever see -- and one of the most versatile, too. From a high-energy party song like "Mustang Sally" to a tender ballad like "At Last" to a sexy romp like "Fever," the lady can sing it all: soul, blues, pop, Dixieland jazz, gospel -- you name it. With a first-rate band and the charisma that has charmed thousands around the world, Ruby Wilson turns mere parties into EVENTS.

Ruby has recorded over 10 albums and performed with such stars as B.B. King, Ray Charles, Robert Goulet, The Four Tops, Jerry Butler, Willie Nelson, Isaac Hayes, and many more. She's also an accomplished actress, with roles in Black Snake Moan, Cookie's Fortune, The People vs. Larry Flynt, The Chamber, The Client, and The Firm. Her 2005 album, "Show You a Good Time," received national acclaim and soared up the blues charts. Some of Ruby's recent awards and honors include:

- inducted into the inaugural class of the African-American Hall of Fame in Memphis, 2010
- featured performer at the New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival 2008
- the Memphis Sound Award from the Blues Ball for Best Entertainer 2005-06
- a Supporter's Award from St. Jude Children's Research Hospital
- the Authentic Beale Street Musician Award from the Beale Street Merchant's Association
- pace car driver for the Komen Race for the Cure in Memphis, 2005
- member of the Memphis-Shelby County Film & Tape Commission

Her versatile show can include a dynamic, showy R&B band with multiple horns and back-up singers, a Dixieland band for traditional New Orleans music, or a simple trio for jazz and blues standards. She can also work as a solo artist.
