Other Notable Arrests

On August 17th, 2023, four men drove a truck through the front doors at Buster's Liquors. Once inside, the men loaded the bed of the pickup truck with liquor bottles. One of the men, Malik Pigram, was seen fleeing the scene on foot. As he crossed Highland, he was struck by a passing motorist. Officers soon located Pigram hiding under a nearby vehicle and took him into custody. Pigram was armed with a loaded 9mm handgun at the time of his arrest.

Pigram, who has previously been convicted of Attempted Carjacking, was charged with Burglary of a Business and Convicted Felon in Possession of a Handgun.

Other Notable Arrests

On August 31st, 2023, a man was approached by an armed suspect as he walked out of a business on South Third. The suspect, later identified as Davonte Vortis, demanded the victim's keys, then fled in the victim's car. Approximately 40 minutes later, Vortis entered another business and robbed the clerk at gunpoint.

Responding officers spotted Vortis as he fled the second robbery in the carjacked vehicle. Although Vortis attempted to elude officers, the car soon broke down and he was captured. He was armed with a gold 9mm handgun at the time of his arrest.

Vortis was charged with Carjacking, Aggravated Robbery, Employment of a Firearm during a Dangerous Felony, and Intentionally Evading Arrest in an Automobile.

Other Notable Arrests

On September 7th, 2023, a man was shot while attending a concert at the FedEx Forum. During the subsequent investigation, investigators discovered that the shooter was attempting to shoot a third man but struck the victim by mistake. The intended victim provided investigators with information that led to the identification of Kevin Young. Investigators were able to positively identify Young, a known gang member, through additional cell phone video of the incident.

Young, who was already out on bond on a slew of felony charges including First Degree Murder, was indicted for Reckless Endangerment with a Deadly Weapon and Unlawful Possession of a Weapon. When officers served the warrant, Young was found with six handguns, three AR-15 rifles, and over 400 grams of marijuana.
